Red w/ #6 - much more new world
 hot vintage - dry summer drought - dark purple - some spice - very approachable
 13% alc thick skin - tannic - reduced skins to use

1. 2020 Pierre Guillemot Savigny-lès-Beaune 1er Cru 'Jarrons' $77 $66

Best ①-② 13.5% Alc ripe - good acid - frost in April - lost 30-40% yield - more concentrated - cold nights - whole package - great mouth feel (viscous) -
 2019 Douhairet-Porcheret Monthélie 1er Cru 'Le Meix Bataille' $80 $68

3. 2018 Rapet Savigny-lès-Beaune 'Aux Fourneaux' heavy rain - winter high alcohol hot summer - dry 13% alc $62 $53

② not agreed vintage early harvest
 4. 2017 Regis Bouvier Marsannay 'Longeroies' Vieilles Vignes - $40 $34 ^{cooked}

③ ok black tea nose great weather conditions good acidity + ripeness - too many grapes - very approachable - leaner than 2019 5 years to put down

③ 5. 2016 Michel Mallard Alox-Corton 1er Cru 'La Toppe au Vert' cold rainy - especially with summer - $140 $119

④ best so far - Matt agrees hot vintage - clean fruit - big - too tight? fruit forward grape skins - tannin - lower acidity level -

6. 2015 Michel Magnien Morey-St.-Denis 1er Cru 'Chaffots' $120 $102

7. 2014 Vincent Legou Ladoix (MAGNUM) - classic vintage - similar to 2012 - warm - clean - no weather issues - Clean

⑤ best so far - lots of fruit - cooler vintage - high acidity - slightly lean - 13.5% alc - Domaine Roty - modern style $100 $85

8. 2013 Joseph Roty Marsannay 'En Ouzeloy' - $60 $51

3 9. 2012 Bernard & Thierry Glantenay Volnay 1er Cru 'Clos des Chênes' $135 $115

10. 2011 Antoin Guyon Corton Grand Cru 'Clos du Roy' cool year - $100 Sold Out 13.5% alc

1 ⑪ 2010 Simon Bize Bourgogne Rouge 'Les Perrières' - specific vineyard - whole cluster $70 $60 20-30 years to age

SOB - disappointing - No nose, no finish
